

Naandwe Noojimowin Program

In 2012, Maamwesying learned of Beauty for Ashes©, a well known nationally recognized program – during a visit to South Central Foundation in Anchorage Alaska.

- Beauty for Ashes© development was a collaborative effort between SCF and Native Alaskan, Inuit, and Native American Elders from their communities.
- Maamwesying's goal – to adapt the BFA model to include cultural teachings while leaving the proven successful process intact.

What is the Naandwe Noojimowin Program

“Assisting in the Healing Movement toward the Good Life.”

- We are a spiritual based, 5 ½ day residential program.
- Our program focus is on storytelling and self-discovery.
- Cultural teachings have been incorporated into the program & workbook.
- We offer cultural and alternative experiential self-care opportunities.
- Our primary service area is our (8) partner NSTC communities, however all applications are accepted.

Naandwe Noojimowin is one of the programs offered by the (Maamwesying) Mental Wellness Minobimaadizing Program.

Naandwe Noojimowin program includes a capacity building, mentoring component (NNPaCT) and we utilize volunteers who have completed training.

Naandwe Noojimowin

“I got to tell my story, didn’t know I had one”

“The people and the bonds that are made through group dynamics, there is a spiritual foundation in that”

Continuing the Conversation Aftercare Support

These aftercare circles are a huge benefit, getting together with others who share their journey and make me feel that I'm not alone"

"I had an opportunity to grieve and truly appreciate this whole heartedly"
