

THIS IS NOT A PART OF THE MEDICAL RECORD

Information in this documentation is protected by the Hospital's Peer Review and Quality Assurance Functions.

TRAUMA CHART REVIEW-EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT

Medical Record# _____ Date of Review: _____ RN Reviewing: _____

Date/Time Admission to ED: _____

Date/Time Discharge from ED: _____

Primary RNs assigned to patient: _____

Providers assigned to patient: _____

Disposition of patient:

- Admitted
- Transfer
- Home
- Expired
- Referred

Transport Team

Ambulance: _____

Flight: _____

QUESTION	YES	NO	N/A	Comments
Was mechanism of injury documented? With when? Where? How? And any protective devices ?
Are vital signs and time documented on arrival ?
Are vital signs and time documented on discharge ?
Are vital signs documented every 15mins, 30mins, 60mins (according to ESI level)? This includes when they are out of the ED department in x-ray, CT, MRI, ultrasound, etc.?
Is the patient's GCS documented on arrival ?
Is the patient's GCS documented on discharge ?
Is GCS documented hourly when a head injury is suspected?
Was a focused assessment done at the time of triage appropriate for injury?
Was an assessment done at the time patient was handed off to new nurse?
Was as assessment done after an intervention or change in condition?
Was a final assessment done at the time of discharge ?
Was a CMS assessment of affected limb done at the time of triage?
Is CMS documented hourly when there is an injury?
Was a CMS assessment done after an intervention or change in condition?
Was CMS assessment done at the time of discharge?
Was wound care documented?
Was a HCG documented before CT or X-rays were done?
Times charted when the patient moved to radiology or CT? And who escorted patient?
Times charted when the patient returned from radiology or CT?
Procedure(s) documented & timed?
I's & O's documented?
Time accepting hospital was called?
Time report given?
Name of Flight Team, time called and time arrived?				